Vickie Taylor

SENIOR PARALEGAL · GRANT & ASSOCIATES LAW FIRM, P.C.

For 25 years, Vickie has dedicated her career to guiding families through some of life's most difficult transitions. As a seasoned family law paralegal, she balances her deep technical knowledge with a compassionate, down-to-earth approach. She understands that legal matters aren't just about paperwork—they are about people, futures, and families.

Vickie's unique professional background makes her an exceptionally well-rounded advocate. She earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Northern Colorado before spending 10 years as a newspaper reporter for the Longmont Daily Times-Call and the Loveland Daily Reporter-Herald, where she mastered the art of listening, asking the right questions, and uncovering the crucial details of a story. She also holds an active Colorado real estate license, a distinct advantage for clients navigating the complexities of dividing property and marital homes.

Always looking for ways to better serve her community, she is currently studying to take Colorado's Licensed Legal Paraprofessional (LLP) exam in November 2026, a new credential that will allow her to offer affordable, direct legal representation in family law matters.

Outside of the office, Vickie's world revolves around her own family. She is the proud mom of four children (three sons and one daughter) and the doting grandmother to three grandsons and two granddaughters. Whenever she can sneak away, you can find her spending time in Estes Park with her husband, soaking in the mountain views and recharging for the clients she cares for every day.
